

First Sunday of Advent

Get Ready!

November 30, 2025 • Ascension Lutheran Church • El Paso, Texas

As We Gather

The ancient song “Oh Come, Oh Come, Emmanuel” says: “Oh come, thou Key of David, come!” Jesus is the Key of David. He is the Son of David who opens the door to heaven. Jesus opens heaven to us because he died for our sins and rose again for us. He has promised that he will come again visibly to take us to be with him.

We wait in hope for that great day! Get ready, because Jesus is coming. We spend so much time getting ready for Christmas by buying gifts and making food – but it’s so much more important to get ready for Christ by repenting and living for him. Oh come, thou Key of David!

The Season of Advent

The word “Advent” means “coming”. Jesus Christ came once in order to save us. He will come again in glory. Are you ready?

The four Sundays before Christmas are “Sundays of Advent”. It’s a time to get ready for Jesus. It’s a time to repent and to turn to our Savior in faith.

Sharing God's Peace with One Another

We greet one another in the name of the Lord, saying "Peace be with you" as a sign of our unity and reconciliation in the Holy Spirit. As we are forgiven by God, so we forgive each other. (Matthew 5:22-24; Ephesians 4:1-3)

Prayer of Confession

- P Our Lord Jesus Christ has said that he will come again visibly to judge the earth. John the Baptist tells us: "Prepare the way for the Lord! Make straight paths for him! Repent, for the kingdom of God is near!" (Matthew 3:2-3)
- C Almighty God, we confess to you all our sins and wrongdoing. We acknowledge that we have offended you and deserve punishment. However, we trust in you, Lord Jesus, who came into the world to save sinners (1 Timothy 1:15). Because of that, even though we have often failed, we trust in your wonderful promise of forgiveness.

Sung Prayer

Lutheran Service Book 361, verse 4

Oh holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray.
 Cast out our sin, and enter in. Be born in us today!
 We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell.
 Oh come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel!

Words of Forgiveness

- P Jesus Christ, in his great love, came to our world as a baby in a dirty manger in a poor stable. He came for one reason: to take away the sins of the world. Jesus died for our failures and rose from the dead to assure us that we have new life and will eventually be raised also. God himself wipes away our wrongdoing! Since you trust in Jesus, by his Word I tell you that you are forgiven, in the name of the Father and of the ✝ Son and of the Holy Spirit!
- G Amen.

Hymn: Glory in the Highest

Libro de Liturgia y Cántico 297

Refrain: Glory in the highest and peace on the earth!

Glory in the highest and peace on the earth!

Sing out the glad tidings of our Savior's birth!

Sing out the glad tidings of our Savior's birth!

1. Jesus seeks no lodging that sets him apart.
Jesus seeks no lodging that sets him apart.
He looks for a place now to dwell in your heart.
He looks for a place now to dwell in your heart.
2. Open up your heart, then, Christ wants to come in.
Open up your heart, then, Christ wants to come in.

And all of your days will be Christmas again.
And all of your days will be Christmas again.

The Advent Wreath

The word "Advent" means "coming". Jesus Christ came once in order to save us. He will come again in glory. Are you ready?

We light the candles on the Advent Wreath – a symbol of hope that Jesus the Light of the World is coming to us! Today we light just one candle: the candle of Hope. For Christ is our Light and our Hope. The first candle of the Advent Wreath is lit.

The Advent Wreath, like the colors and candles on the altar, is a symbol. It reminds us that Christ will come again visibly, and that we need to be prepared. The Advent Wreath is in the shape of a circle, because just as a circle has no end, Christ came to give us life without end. The Wreath has four colored candles, one for each Sunday before Christmas. The center candle is called the Christ Candle and is lit on Christmas Day itself. Just as we prepare to celebrate Christmas – Christ's first coming – the Advent candles remind us that we need to prepare for Christ's second coming in glory. We need to admit our failures to do God's will, ask for God's forgiveness, and live for him.

Advent Wreath Song: It's Coming! Libro de Liturgia y Cántico 282

Refrain: It's coming, it's coming, it's Christmas coming again!
It's coming, it's coming, it's Christmas coming again!

1. Light a candle for hope, a candle-light for hope!
Light a candle for hope, a candle-light for hope!
And with the candle, bring to all the hope of the Lord.
And with the candle, bring to all the hope of the Lord. (Refrain)

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 2:1-5

(The day is coming when the Lord will bring peace and all nations will seek him.)

The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

² It shall come to pass in the latter days
that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be lifted up above the hills;
and all the nations shall flow to it,

³ and many peoples shall come, and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob,

that he may teach us his ways
 and that we may walk in his paths.”
 For out of Zion shall go forth the law,^[a]
 and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
⁴ He shall judge between the nations,
 and shall decide disputes for many peoples;
 and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
 and their spears into pruning hooks;
 nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
 neither shall they learn war anymore.
⁵ O house of Jacob, come, let us walk
 in the light of the Lord.

R This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

New Testament (Epistle) Reading

Romans 13:11-14

(The night is ending; live in the light of Christ, for the day of salvation is at hand.)

You know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

R This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Reading from the Gospel

Matthew 24:36-51

(We need to be ready, because when we least expect it, Jesus will return.)

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 24th chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

[Jesus said,] "But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. ³⁷ For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, ³⁹ and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. ⁴² Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³ But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

⁴⁵ "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. ⁴⁷ Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But if that wicked servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed,' ⁴⁹ and begins to beat his fellow servants and eats and drinks with drunkards, ⁵⁰ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know ⁵¹ and will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

Prayer

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray together:

C Stir up your power, Lord Jesus, and come. We eagerly await your coming. Protect us with your power and save us from the dangers that threaten us because of our sins. For you are God and Lord, and you open for us the gates of heaven. Amen.

Song while Children Come to the Front: Away in a Manger

(LOSP 82)

1. Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.
3. Be near me, Lord Jesus. I ask thee to stay
Close by me forever. And love me, I pray!
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And take us to heaven to live with thee there.

Sermon

Stand

Apostles' Creed

- C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers and Petitions

While we wait for Jesus to come in glory, we pray and put before him all our needs, because he has promised to answer us and help us.

- P Lord God, prepare our hearts for when Jesus comes again. Help us to resist the temptation to get swept up in the Christmas fever for things; instead, help us to show your love in everything we do. Lord, in your mercy,
- C Hear our prayer!
- P Heavenly Father, provide for our daily needs as you have promised. Give work to those who are unemployed. Give your help to those who are hungry or in need. Help us to follow your example and be generous in helping others. Lord, in your mercy,
- C Hear our prayer!
- P Jesus, our Savior, help those among us who are sick or hurt or lonely, or sad because they are missing someone who has passed away. Especially we pray for our family and friends who need your help: (See our prayer list at the back of the bulletin). Heal our hurts and give us your comfort, so that we can serve you this Christmas with joy. Lord, in your mercy,
- C Hear our prayer!
- P Holy Spirit, use us to touch the hearts of those who do not yet believe in Jesus. Raise up faithful leaders in the church. Bless our preschool and Sunday school teachers, our elders and council leaders, and everyone who serves. Prepare all of us so that we can share your Word with others. Lord, in your mercy,
- C Hear our prayer!
- P Lord God, bring peace to our country and to the nations of the world. We particularly pray that you would bring healing to Israel and the Middle East, and that you would bring the Jews back to faith in you, the Messiah. Bless and protect our leaders here in this country, as well as all who protect and defend our freedom and our well-being. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

P We leave all of our concerns in your hands, oh Lord, trusting in your mercy through Jesus Christ our Savior.

C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

A Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

HEARING AIDS FOR MUSIC DIRECTOR: Our music director, Ruth Ann, is struggling with serious hearing difficulties that blur and confuse the organ sounds and the voice of anyone using a microphone (like the pastor during worship). She needs some specialized hearing aids; without them, she will not be able to continue to serve the Lord as organist and choir director. Insurance will cover part of the cost, but there will still be a shortfall of $2,800.00, which is out of Ruth Ann's reach. Over the next 2 weeks, we will be taking up a freewill offering to help Ruth Ann with these hearing aids. If you would like to help out, you can place an envelope with a check or cash in the offering plate, with the words "Music Director Hearing Aids" written clearly on the outside. Ruth Ann has been a faithful servant of our congregation for many years; now we have an opportunity to support her, so she can continue to serve the Lord in music ministry.

Count Your Blessings

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say this: Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men... (Psalm 107:1, 2, 8 NIV)

Years ago, at Thanksgiving, Ascension used to pass out printed sheets with spaces to write down plenty of things we are thankful for. Each page had maybe 30 or so blank spaces to be filled in. When my family finished Thanksgiving dinner, my mom passed out the sheets and had us start writing. The first time this happened, I wasn't thrilled. I looked at that sheet with all the enthusiasm of a grade school kid having to write an essay about what they did over summer vacation. Didn't we have enough forms to fill out in life? Why ruin Thanksgiving with another one?

I started writing, thinking that I would have to really stretch to be able to find enough things to be thankful for to fill in all the spaces. But it wasn't at all like I thought it would be. I started with family. I wrote that I was thankful for my wife, for my son, for my two daughters, for my mother, for my mother-in-law, and each of my extended family members... in fact, I had to cut myself short because I could have filled in all of my spaces just with family. Then I started writing about the physical blessings that God had given me: clothes and shoes, food on the table, a roof over my head, a job with income, a phone, a computer, and on and on... again I had to stop because I could have used up another two pages just with "things" with which God had blessed me. Then there were friends and co-workers and brothers and sisters at church... better just to write the general category "Friends" and not try to list them all because I was running out of room. And what about health and eyesight and hearing and being able to walk and talk and think clearly and taste and smell and hike in the desert... better cut it short again! And then there were spiritual blessings: God forgives me, saves me through Jesus, gives me eternal life, gives me his Word, is with me all the time, gives me strength when I face problems, hears me when I pray, encourages me, loves me no matter what, and so on. Then what about the country in which I live, the freedoms I enjoy, the people who sacrifice to serve my community...
