Christ the King

66th Anniversary of Ascension Lutheran Church

November 22, 2026 ● Ascension Lutheran Church ● El Paso, Texas

As We Gather

Jesus is our King, and we are his people! God has called us together as his church, to help each other in following Christ, to encourage, correct, and support each other out of love. Over the past 66 years, God has been with us through good times and difficult, challenging times, and we trust that he will continue to guide us in the years to come. Today we celebrate God's grace here at Ascension Lutheran Church!

Prelude

Words of Welcome

Stand

Sharing God's Peace with One Another

We greet one another in the name of the Lord, saying "Peace be with you" as a sign of our unity and reconciliation in the Holy Spirit. As we are forgiven by God, so we forgive each other. (Matthew 5:22-24; Ephesians 4:1-3)

Opening Hymn: Come, Thou Almighty King (Lutheran Service Book 905)

Text and tune: Public domain

Invocation Lutheran Service Book 151

P In the name of the Father and of the ✢ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen. (Matthew 28:19, 18:20)

P If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

C But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:8-9)

Confession and Absolution

P God is our King! And he commands us to care for one another with the love that comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith (1 Timothy 1:5). But honestly, very often our love is not all that pure, our consciences are not all that clean, and our faith is weak. Nevertheless, Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners (1 Timothy 1:15). In Jesus' name, we ask God for a "royal pardon"!

All: Lord God, we admit that we have not lived up to your standards. We want to follow your ways but all to often we have failed. We have not loved you first and foremost. We have not loved other people as we ought. Forgive us. For Jesus' sake, wipe out our wrongdoing and make us clean. Amen.

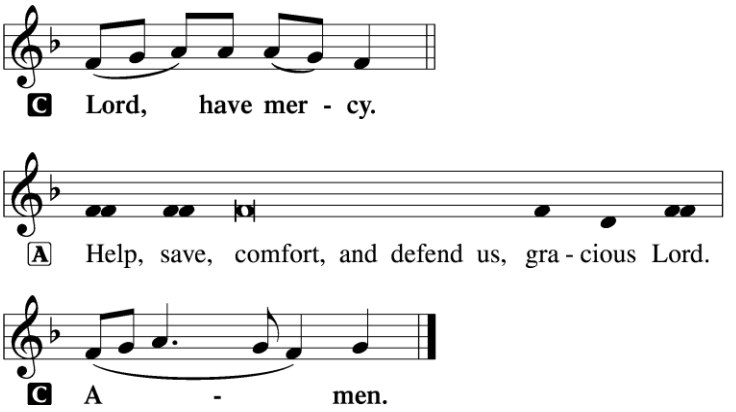

P Jesus Christ left his throne in heaven and died on the cross for our sins, to pay our debt. Through faith in Jesus, God the Father makes us clean, forgives us, and the Holy Spirit gives us a new start. By the decree of the Lord our King, therefore, I announce to you that all our wrongdoing has been forgiven, in the name of the Father and of the ✢ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

The King of Glory (Psalm 24) Hymnal "We Pray in Song" 474

Refrain: The King of Glory comes! The nation rejoices!
Open the gates before him. Lift up your voices!

1. Who is the King of glory? How shall we call him?
   He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages. (Refrain)

2. In all of Galilee, in city or village,
   He goes among his people curing their illness. (Refrain)

3. Sing then of David's Son, our Savior and brother.
   In all of Galilee was never another. (Refrain)

4. He gave his life for us, the pledge of salvation.
   He took upon himself the sins of the nation. (Refrain)

5. He conquered sin and death. He truly has risen!
   And he will share with us his heavenly vision. (Refrain)

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

All: Lord Jesus, you are our King! Reign in our hearts. Extend your kingdom to people around the world. And come soon in glory as King of kings and Lord of lords. In your own name we pray. Amen.

Old Testament Reading Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

(Jesus the King, the Son of David, will shepherd all the Lord's sheep.)

For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. 12 As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. 13 I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land. 14 I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will tend my sheep and have them lie down, declares the Sovereign Lord. 16 I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice…

Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says to them: See, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with your horns until you have driven them away, 22 I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another. 23 I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. 24 I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the Lord have spoken. (NIV)

R This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

New Testament (Epistle) Reading 1 Corinthians 15:20-26

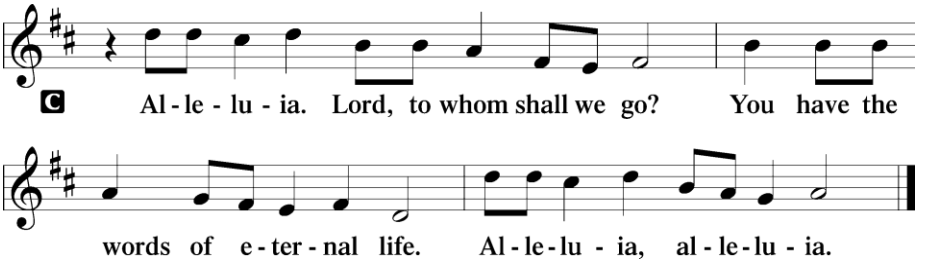

(Jesus the King will raise up those who have died, and will overcome every enemy.)

Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. 22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. 24 Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (NIV)

Holy Gospel Matthew 25:31-46

(Jesus the King will judge all of us on the Last Day.)

℗ The Holy Gospel according to Matthew, chapter 25.
℣ Glory to You, O Lord.

[Jesus said,] "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

37 "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

40 "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

41 "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.'

44 "They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?'

45 "He will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'

46 "Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life." (NIV)

Sermon

Stand

Nicene Creed (Public declaration of our faith)

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ☩ of the world to come. Amen.

Sharing about Prayer

In the Catechism class, we have studied what the Bible says about prayer. Today Victor Valdés is sharing very briefly one thought from the class about prayer that struck him as important for him and for all of us.

Prayer of the Church

L Lord God, you have called us into your Church and you have promised to be with us always. Thank you for the people whom you led to start our congregation and to build it up over the years. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Thank you for these 66 years that you have given us! Please continue to help us and equip us and lead us so that we can be a light in our community. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Thank you for giving us your Word and changing our lives. Forgive us for the times when we have not lived up to our calling. Help us to always live together in unity, forgiving one another in love. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Lord God, bless those whom you have called as leaders, pastors, teachers, elders, musicians, and so many others. Guide them so that they serve you faithfully. Let them see good fruits from their labors. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Dear Jesus, help us in our weakness. According to your will, heal those among us who are ill, help those who are facing difficult problems, guide those who are confronting hard decisions, and encourage those who are grieving to trust in your promises. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Heavenly Father, bring peace and justice and mercy to the world around us, especially in our nation. Give wisdom to our political leaders and protect our military, the police, first responders, and all those who serve our communities. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L Holy Spirit, help our brothers and sisters who live under persecution in different parts of the world. Give them courage under duress, help them to give a good testimony of their faith, and alleviate their sufferings. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer!

L These things – and others which are in our hearts – we leave in your hands, trusting in your mercy through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

Offering

The Bible says: "On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income." (1 Corinthians 16:2a, NIV). In response to God's great love, as part of our worship we set aside a portion of what he has given us, for the mission and ministry at this congregation and throughout the world.

Choir Anthem: Mighty is Our God (Greco, Gustafson, Moen, Smith, and Drennan)

1. Mighty is our God! Mighty is our King!
   Mighty is our Lord, ruler of everything!
   Glory to our God! Glory to our King!
   Glory to the Lord, ruler of everything!

2. His name is higher, higher than any other name.
   His power is greater, for he has created everything.
   Mighty is our God! Mighty is our King!
   Mighty is our Lord, ruler of everything!

3. Oh Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.
   Oh Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.
   Oh Lord, we praise your name. Oh Lord, we magnify your name,
   Prince of Peace, mighty God, Oh Lord God almighty.

4. Mighty is our God! Mighty is our King!
   Mighty is our Lord, ruler of everything!
   Prince of Peace, mighty God, oh Lord God almighty.
   Oh Lord, our Lord, how mighty is our God!
   Oh Lord, our Lord – mighty is our Lord – he is our God!

Offering Prayer of Dedication

All: Almighty God, thank you for saving us through Jesus Christ. Bless these offerings and use them to proclaim the name of Jesus in every part of the world. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Offertory: Jesus Christ, My God, My Savior (tune: The Lutheran Hymnal 357)

1. Jesus Christ, my God, my Savior, Sovereign King, my Lord most high!
   I am small, yet here I give you All my heart, my hands, my life.

2. All I have is yours forever. Let me serve you faithfully!
   With the Father and the Spirit, Praise be yours eternally

✢ Service of the Sacrament ✢

Invitation and Preparation for Communion

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion, one of the precious gifts that God gives to His people. In Communion, God wants to assure us that we have been forgiven through faith in Jesus who gave his body and blood for us on the cross.

To prepare for Communion, we follow what 1 Corinthians 11:28 says: "Let each man examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks the cup." Therefore, if you wish to participate in Communion today, we ask that you review and affirm the following questions:

1. Do I believe I am a sinner, that is, that I have failed to keep God's commands as I should, and that I need forgiveness?
2. Do I trust in Jesus as my personal Lord and Savior, who died and rose for me?
3. Do I believe as I eat the bread and drink the cup, that I also receive the true body and blood of Jesus that He gave for me on the cross – even though I can't fully explain it?
4. Do I intend, with the help of God, to follow Jesus more closely and obey him more faithfully?

If you answer "yes" to these questions, then you share a common faith with our Christian congregation and you are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us. Our common faith is expressed in more detail in the Creed that we confess together during the worship service.

Special Instructions for Communion:

- Children and adults who are not communing are welcome to come forward for a blessing. To indicate this, please cross your arms when the elders or pastor come by. Children do not commune until they have completed basic instruction classes about the Christian faith.
- If you are unable to go to the altar, please let an usher know and the Pastor will bring the Lord's Supper (Communion) to your pew. Please sit close to any of the three aisles in the church.
- During Communion, gluten-free communion wafers (bread) are available. Just ask the Pastor when he comes to give you the bread.
- During Communion, you may take one of the small communion cups from the tray, or you may wait and drink from the common cup.
- On the tray of small communion cups, those cups in the center of the tray have light-colored, non-alcoholic grape juice. The other cups have wine.

If you have any questions, please see the Pastor or one of the elders.

Preparation for Communion

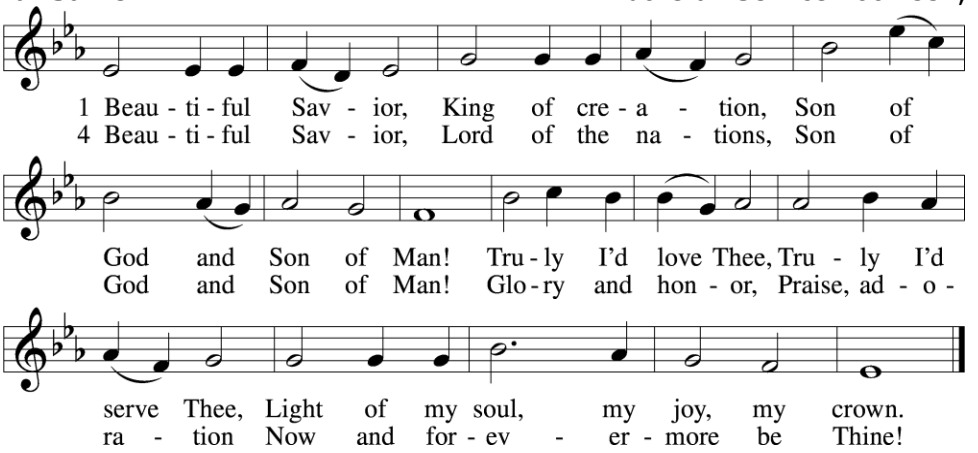

P This is the day that the Lord has made!
C Let us rejoice and be glad in it! (Psalm 118:24)
P Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good!
C His love endures forever! (Psalm 118:1)

℗ Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

℄ It is right to give him thanks and praise!

℗ Lord Jesus, we should indeed give you thanks and praise today and always, here and in every place, because you are the King of kings and the Lord of lords! You died for us and rose from the dead and have given us eternal life. Therefore we lift up our voices to you today, together with all the believers in heaven and on earth, to praise your name:

Lord's Prayer

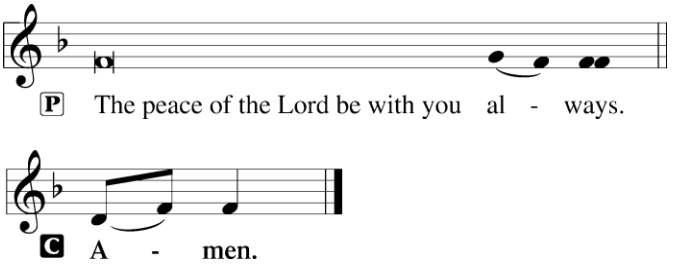

℟ Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Words of Our Lord

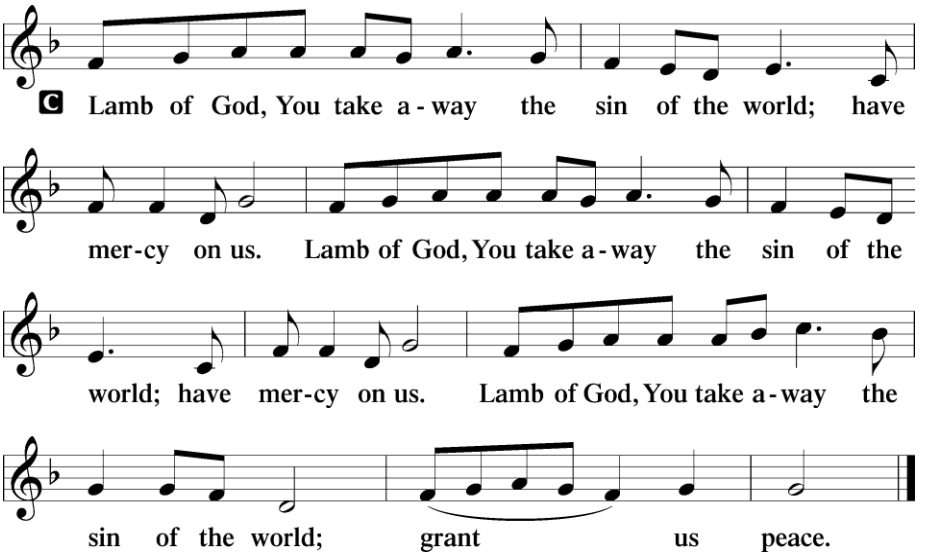

℗ Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My ☩ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ☩ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

Lead On, Oh King Eternal Make a Joyful Sound (White Booklet) 11

1. Lead on, oh King eternal. The day of march has come.
   Henceforth in fields of conquest thy tents shall be our home.
   Through days of preparation, thy grace has made us strong,
   And now, oh King eternal, we lift our battle song.

2. Lead on, oh King eternal, till sin's fierce war shall cease,
   And holiness shall whisper the sweet amen of peace.
   For not with swords' loud clashing, or roll of stirring drums;
   With deeds of love and mercy the heavenly kingdom comes.

3. Lead on, oh King eternal. We follow, not with fears,
   For gladness breaks like morning where'er thy face appears.
   Thy cross is lifted o'er us; we journey to the light.
   The crown awaits the conquest. Lead on, oh God of might!
